

F.N.B. Capital Corporation Invests in Horsham, PA Company

Realpoint Sees Opportunities in Mortgage Market Research

Pittsburgh, PA – November 29, 2007 – F.N.B. Capital Corporation, LLC, the Pittsburgh-based merchant banking subsidiary of F.N.B. Corporation (NYSE – FNB), has provided mezzanine financing to Realpoint, LLC, a company that provides integrated commercial real estate research, bond surveillance, analytics, and data management services to companies engaged in commercial real estate finance. The investment will enable the buyout of Realpoint by the executive management team, led by Realpoint founder, Robert Dobilas. Investment bankers from Griffin Financial Group, LLC facilitated the transaction.

“F.N.B. Capital was one of several mezzanine groups interested in Realpoint because of the quality of the management team and the company’s dominant position in the real estate research market. We are pleased to have been selected as an investment partner in this very promising and high growth enterprise,” said Stephen Gurgovits, Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer of F.N.B. Capital Corporation. “This investment also allows F.N.B. Capital Corporation to expand its footprint into the greater Harrisburg and Philadelphia markets.”

Since its inception in 2001, Realpoint, based in Horsham, PA, has enjoyed top market position in its industry, and was recognized for the quality of the information it provides by investors surveyed by Real Estate Finance and Investment in 2002. The company is poised to introduce several innovative new products, including Lead Generator, a service that provides commercial financing leads to banks and other lenders.

“Given recent events in the credit markets, we anticipate increased demand for the reliable and comprehensive research offered by Realpoint through their extensive database and premiere technology,” added Gurgovits.
